

LIVING IN THE CITY OF NORTH BAY

North Bay has a population of 54 000 and is centrally located in the province of Ontario. It is a caring community of energetic, high-spirited people. Festivals, attractions and a wide range of special event activities blend with the natural attractions of the area. The combination of lush forests, spring-fed water and clean air creates a healthy environment for working, living, and raising a family. With a crime rate of less than 5% North Bay is truly a safe community. Friendly, well-planned neighbourhoods and short commutes also make coming home a pleasure in North Bay.

Environment

Nestled between two beautiful lakes and located in the heart of the Nipissing region, North Bay offers four distinct seasons. With an average temperature fluctuation of 50 degrees between summer and winter months, the community provides vast recreation opportunities for all types of outdoor enthusiasts.

Education

North Bay has educational services spanning from pre-school to post-secondary. With four individual school boards servicing the area, public, separate, as well as bilingual education options are available.

Nipissing University is a small university that strives to provide a collegial setting attentive to individuals.

Canadore College is comprised of three campuses – the Aviation Campus, Commerce Court, and the Education Centre which shares a stunning 720-acre wooded escarpment overlooking the City with Nipissing University.

ECONOMY

The diversified economy is comprised of advanced manufacturing, public administration, trade and commerce, transportation, communication and service industries. The available skilled work force, often educated at the local community colleges and university, is experienced and highly regarded.

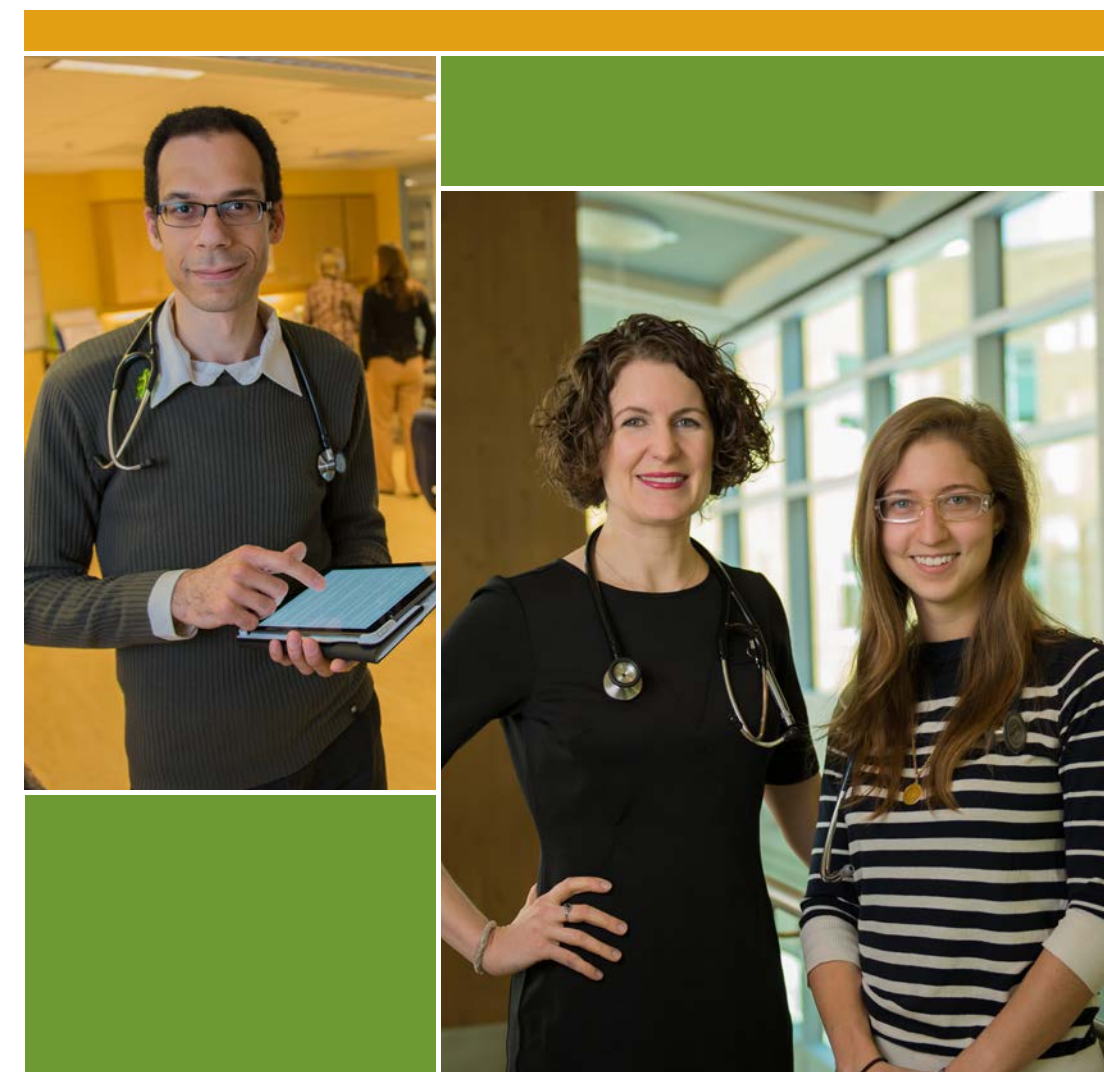

North Bay is only three and a half hours away from both Toronto and Ottawa and is well serviced by air, land, and telecom infrastructure. North Bay is a hub for transportation and communications.

Leading Care, Improving Health, Enriching Communities

NORTH BAY REGIONAL HEALTH CENTRE

North Bay has been given the wonderful opportunity to create a unique and innovative health centre, tailored to meet the needs of citizens in our region.

The Health Centre is a one-stop location offering a state-of-the-art acute care hospital and a modern, recovery focused mental health facility that serves northeastern Ontario, all housed in one cooperative health care campus. It is a place where families in our region come for care, regardless whether they are facing physical or mental health challenges.

WHY MOVE TO NORTH BAY?

Our Services

The North Bay Regional Health Centre offers our patients a vast array of medical services including all specialties—with the exception of neurology, cardiology and plastics. Working as a cohesive unit within the hospital, all services contribute to the high quality of care that the hospital prides itself on. The collegiality among our physicians, health care professionals and staff makes for a very satisfying working atmosphere.
